

Biographical Information – Masterclass Presenter – Pam Linke

Pam Linke is a social worker who has spent many years working with families and young children including acting as a consultant to early childhood services and schools. Pam is on the national executive of Early Childhood Australia and the Australian Association for Infant Mental Health. She has written a number of books for early childhood educators and parents and is chair of the Early Childhood Australia Publications committee. Currently she works as an early childhood and parenting consultant and part time lecturer in early childhood at the University of South Australia.