“Transforming Little People into BIG PEOPLE!”

Delegates will get to tease out the distinctions introduced in the Keynote presentation in an interactive/highly entertaining workshop situation.

- Listening skills will be heightened and the costs of “not listening” to our students, colleagues, family, parents etc are revealed.
- The huge costs of selling-out on our passion and desires will be clearly revealed. Participants will really see what they lose from their humanity when re-acting to circumstances. CHOICE between action and re-action will be clearly experienced.
- LIFE AUDIT: We will plot the “roller-coaster” of our lives so far...professionally and personally. Naming the HIGHS and LOWS will allow the participants to see where to take action in either acknowledging or healing relationships (or both) .
- The 3 doorways to resolving any “breakdown in communication” will be revealed! Delegates will be left empowered to fully participate in their lives and with the ability to find laughter when they are not living this way! Laughter opens the way to choose how they are going to BE in the face of the circumstances.

Delegates will receive the salient points from the presentation in note form, so the words not only become powerful catch-phrases ...but will remain important tools for people into the future.
