Presenter Bio: Carrie Rose

Carrie Rose has worked in early childhood education for 20 years. Her experience ranges from her current Owner/ Director position at Rosie’s Early Learning, years of teaching across both private and community based child care, lecturing in early childhood education and consultancy work for the past 6 years. Her passion focuses on using both emergent curriculum principles and designing environments to provide an engaging educational environment for young children.